

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS29706 / H0738

This legislation provides that elections of community college trustees in a community college district with a population greater than 250,000 be by a vote of electors within each respective zone rather than at large; provides guidance to redrawing zone lines for the convenience of county clerks; and, clarifies the State Board of Education's role in filling vacancies under certain circumstances.

FISCAL NOTE

This legislation has no impact to the General Fund. All administrative functions undertaken by community colleges and county clerks for trustee elections would continue, this legislation merely changes the methodology used. Therefore, this legislation has no impact on the budgets of community colleges or counties, either.
